

The Church of Saint Thomas the Apostle and the Monsignor John F. Callahan Council of the Knights of Columbus held a Memorial for the Victims of 911. Brother Joe Fischetti created a replica of the Ground Zero Iron Cross and the Knights honored Joe Lenihan, a Parishioner who perished in the World Trade Center.

The Memorial was centered on the Church Plaza for 24 hours. Following each Mass, Father Moran led the Congregation in reading Pope Benedict the 16th's Prayer from the Knights of Columbus 911 Prayer Card. This was followed by a moment of silent Prayer for all those impacted by the attacks of 911.

After saying the 10:30 Mass, Father Sam led the Congregation out of the Church to the Plaza for the Memorial Prayers.

