

Earlier this month the Knights of Columbus made a presentation to Sunrise Northeast of funds collected from the Tootsie Roll Drive. Sunrise Northeast cares for people with intellectual disabilities. For two weekends in October each year, the Knights of Columbus stand outside of Stop & Shop and Foodmart collecting money and handing out candy. Last October we collected just over $1,000. A little over $200 was donated to the Special Olympics and about $830 was presented to Sunrise. This was a joint venture between Saint Peter Claver's Council and the Council from the Church of Saint Thomas the Apostle.

We want to thank Stop and Shop, Waldbaum's Foodmart and the patrons of those fine local stores for their support in this effort to improve the lives of those with intellectual disabilities.

Thank you,
Michael DeConti, Program Director, Monsignor John F. Callahan Council 3600
